Dear Parent/Legal Guardian,

As a student intern at the University of South Florida, I am working at your child's school participating in a teaching field experience, record audio, and/or take still images of students to document the learning activities that they participate. The purpose of these recordings and still images is to help me, my mentor teacher, and my university instructor assess my ability to effectively teach our students in my class, and my university instructor assess my ability to effectively teach our a classroom, and communicate with students. Although I will be in your child's classroom, I will not be responsible for the care of your child. I will be responsible for the care of my students. I will be responsible for the care of my students. I will be responsible for the care of my students.
