

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

USF Supports the Free Exchange of Ideas and Encourages Civil Discourse

Know Your Rights

In accordance with the first amendment, all persons have a right to free expression of
RELIGION - SPEECH - PRESS - PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY

Plan Effectively

Contact the Event Support Team for assistance in planning your expressive activity

(813) 974-5009

Know the Rules

Demonstrations or protests are not permitted to disrupt the university's academic mission, daily operations or scheduled events, FL 877.13

Key Rules:

- Amplified sound is only allowed in certain areas and only with a reservation
- Activity cannot disrupt classes or university operations
- Entrances and egresses cannot be blocked
- Review USF Policy 6-028

Follow the Rules

Follow these rules to have a safe and effective event. Violators could be asked to leave or trespassed from campus. Students can be subject to disciplinary action by the Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development.